

Gungahlin Uniting Church

Family and Young People's Ministry Facilitator - Gungahlin Uniting Church

Do you have a passion for empowering others, developing new programs and nurturing faith and relationships across the generations and the wider community? Gungahlin Uniting Church in Canberra's north is offering an exciting opportunity to grow a vibrant and sustainable youth and family ministry within this energetic multigenerational and multicultural congregation.

About the Role

Gungahlin Uniting Church is seeking an experienced and passionate Family and Young People's Ministry Facilitator to lead us in the next exciting stage of our ministry with young people and their families.

Key Responsibilities

This full-time role will focus on strengthening our commitment to our young people and their families by

- guiding the expansion of our family and young people's ministry
- developing faith and discipleship pathways, empowering and inspiring the next generation of faith leaders
- mentoring and developing volunteers
- developing family friendly creative and innovative worship spaces
- promoting relationships across Presbytery and the community
- strengthening intergenerational relationships, building a warm and inclusive environment that values the presence and contributions of young people and their families

We're looking for someone who:

- has a vibrant Christian faith and commitment to youth ministry
- has experience in ministry with young people and in developing programs and leadership of others
- preferably has a Ministry qualification
- can work collaboratively in a team environment and independently with minimum supervision
- can build relationships with people of all ages
- has highly effective communication and interpersonal skills
- has highly effective organisational and time management skills
- can lead a congregation in intergenerational worship, including preaching
- is eligible (or willing to become eligible) for commissioning as a Pastor within the UCA

What We Offer:

- An open and inclusive community, welcoming people from different cultures, traditions, ages, genders, gender identities, abilities and viewpoints.
- A community whose plan for the future has created energy, momentum and growth in the ministry of young people and their families.
- A strong foundation of warmth and widespread understanding of the importance of an intergenerational congregation and the prioritising of young people.
- A commitment to grow, adapt, and invest in the future.
- Actively supports connection and deeper relationships with other Uniting youth ministries across Canberra.
- A team of supportive and enthusiastic volunteers
- Flexibility, creativity and the chance to make a lasting difference in the lives of young people.

To apply:

To obtain the full position description, please go to Gungahlin Uniting's website

<https://www.gungahlinuniting.org/>

Applications should be sent to Narelle Dodd at narelle.dodd@gungahlinuniting.org. Your application should include:

- a covering statement addressing the selection criteria for the role, as outlined in the full position description
- a current CV detailing relevant experience and qualifications
- contact details of two referees (including at least one work-related referee)

Applications close: 4 December 2025